PHOTOGRAPHED DEAD HEADS.

Most people are aware that State Legislators, etc., ere provided with free passes over the different railroads, but the majority of mankind are not aware of the extent to which the privilege has been abused and that it is quite an ordinary occurrence to circulate tickets marked "not transferable" indiscriminately among friends. To remedy such abuses the Pennsylvania Central proposes to have a photograph of the party to whom the "pasteboard" is issued taken on the reverse of the pass, so that the conductor can immediately see "how it is himself," The Philadelphia Record says on the subject: We understand that a somewhat unusual application of photography is just now in process of completion in this city.
